...to make the everyone, that / at the time etc.

Good we had a backup plan, and next will be a backup to our existing plan. 😎

It looks like Discord is banning people in TD's discord channel.

I'm riding the struggle bus and did not click advanced. Do I need to make a new account now? I feel like my parents..

Yes lol. I did get it figured out though, just had to close the browser out and log back in. Then I could click advanced and browse for the room.

No need to create a new account.

▼

Go back to the beginning - <https://app.element.io/#/register> - and click on the Far Right box FIRST to access the 'advanced server'.

Then type in <https://matrix.donaldsarmy.us>

And then enter username and new password to setup a new account.

Ok I got this far, but once I logged in I don't see anything for the group. I just see people and rooms on the left. But nothing in either.

Try starting from the beginning then, something's not right.

▼

Try a new (different) browser and enter <https://app.element.io/#/register>

Click on the far right one - Advanced / Other and then enter the server name

<https://matrix.donaldsarmy.us/>

And then you should see fields to enter username / PW. LMK how it goes.

▼ They will just ban it again unless you want to make a new discord account every 12 to 24 hours or less.
